American History Series," published by The Cornhill Company. They do not fall in the particular field of this Quarterly but are here mentioned for the sake of such readers as are sportsmen, officers or men in service or inventors. The books are well printed and profusely illustrated.

The Hoover War Collection. By E. D. ADAMS. (Stanford University, California: Stanford University Press, 1921. Pp. 82).

Professor Adams here gives a report and an analysis of the important work indicated by the title. Mr. Herbert C. Hoover, a Stanford alumnus, has given his own collection of manuscripts, pamphlets, books, placards, etc., pertaining to the World War and in April 1919, he cabled the gift of $50,000 to make additions. "The limit of fifty thousand dollars has since been removed by the generous donor." Stanford University will become one of the greatest centers in which to study the history of the World War.
